Winter Underwear

FOR MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN.

"When the frost is on the pumpkin
And the fodder's in the shock"

It's high time to think of shedding your summer underwear and donning something heavier and warmer. How about your underwear supplies? Have you everything you need to carry you through the season? If not, get them at once; don't wait until the first cold snap strikes the town. You won't find stocks any larger, assortments more complete or prices lower than they are at present, the reverse if anything.

LOCAL GATHERINGS.

—The Whitley Exercise is for sale at F. O. Clark's. Prices $2.00 to $5.00.

—The Searchlight Club held a very pleasant meeting with the Misses Bulard last evening.

—The rummage sale for the benefit of Brightlook Hospital is to be held the third week of this month.

—A large barn at Newbury owned by Frank Kimball was burned last evening, together with 100 cows, 18 horses, and 40 hogs. The light was plainly visible at this place.

—The third in the series of subscription dances will be held at J. O. U. A. M. hall Friday evening, beginning promptly at eight.

—Trains passing through here have been well laden with deer during the hunting season, one train recently having 18 aboard.

—A special train Wednesday evening took 53 members of Passumpsic Lodge, F. & A. M., to Danville for a visitation to the lodge at that place.

—The W. E. Peck estate has traded the farm at Passumpsic for Eugene Allard's house at 119 Railroad street. Mr. Allard moved to the farm last week.

—The residence of Mrs. Flora E. Lovejoy was wired for electric lights last week, and the company is now at work on Lyman P. Harriman's house.

—Six members of the St. Johnsbury orchestra went to North Haverhill Friday night and played for a ball. Thursday night they play at Whitefield for a similar occasion.

—E. L. Stanley has bought out the livery business of Hiram Goss, 76 Eastern avenue, and took possession Monday. Mr. Goss expects to spend the winter in California.

—St. Margaret's Guild held its semi-annual meeting with Miss Carrie S. Drew Monday evening. After the election of officers for the coming six months, a social time was enjoyed.

—The North church Sunday school have just secured a fine relief map of Palestine for use in all departments of the school. The money for its purchase was collected by the children themselves.

—Mrs. Anna Spencer Frost, the well known reader and reciter, has just issued an attractive announcement of her work containing several personal announcements and press notices and a specimen program.

—Mrs. Mary M., widow of the late James Odette died at the home of her son on Clark's avenue Sunday of tuberculosis, aged about 58 years. The funeral was held Tuesday morning at Notre Dame church.

—These are the advertised letters at the postoffice for the week ending November 2: Benote, Miss Florence; Lewis, Miss L.; Russell, Bell; Carrier, Honore; Dubois, E.; Harkin, George; Taylor, Alfred E.; Westover, Melvin.

—Instead of the usual poverty ball on Thanksgiving night there will be an invitation ball at the Armory with music by the Wilder Orchestral Club of eight pieces of Montpelier. From eight to nine there will be a concert by the club.

—A basket ball court on Highland avenue has afforded much pleasure for the girls of the eighth and ninth grades during the past few weeks. Saturday there was a game between these grades which resulted in a score of 20 to 14 in favor of the ninth.

—Albert F. Caswell has resigned his position as chief of police and has commenced work at the scale factory. Who his successor will be is not definitely settled, but it is expected that D. M. Miller will be appointed to the vacant place on the force.

—Joseph Gauthier has sold, through the Rickaby Agency his house at 16 Portland street to Edward W. Brock way, who has been a carriage-maker at Sutton for many years. He will move here about Dec. 1. Mr. Gauthier and Thomas Rickaby have bought the carriage shop at Sutton.

—Miss Emma V., daughter of Joseph Beaugard of St. Johnsbury Center, and E. A. Girard of Barton were married at Notre Dame church, Tuesday morning in the presence of quite a gathering of friends. They went to New York on their wedding trip and will reside in Barton on their return.

—The breaking of a journal on the tender derailed the locomotive and tender of the way freight bound west, about a mile this side of East Hardwick, yesterday forenoon. A wrecking train was promptly sent to the scene of the accident, and the track was cleared with less than two hours' interruption of traffic.

—Secretary Fred Wilson and Capt. Mary Richmond are the contracting parties in the wedding ceremony which takes place at the Salvation Army Barracks tomorrow night. Major Turner of Montreal will be present and will be assisted by the brass band. The occasion is public, and an admission of 15 cents will be charged.

—The executive committee of the W. R. C., and any other members who can come, are requested to meet at G. A. R. Hall Thursday afternoon and bring lunch as usual. The vote for the ice pitcher stands as follows: 217 for Sunset Home and 178 for Brightlook. It is expected this contest will close about the middle of this month.

—The 29th anniversary of the organization of Olive Branch, Rebekah Lodge, No. 4, will be held at Odd Fellows' Hall tomorrow evening. A fine literary and musical program has been arranged, and the well-known ability of the ladies as entertainers insures a successful gathering. The guests are limited to Odd Fellows and their families.

The St. Johnsbury Electric Co., has purchased the grist mill and water privilege at the Centre and will fix it up as a supplementary electric plant. The growth of the main plant has necessitated the extensive use of steam power for the past three years and the plant at the Centre will be used instead of the engines where extra power is required.

—The Barton Monitor of Nov. 4, says: B. G. Howe of St. Johnsbury sold his hotel, the Buswell house and the large barn which is occupied by Mr. Martin for a livery stable, also the land in front of the hotel, at auction, last Saturday. C. M. Darling of Lyndonville purchased the property for $7000. Mr. Howe reserves the land back of the hotel. C. M. Darling takes possession today.

—On another page of the CALEDONIAN will be found a local market report which gives the retail prices of many of the most common articles in various lines of trade. The report is corrected every Tuesday and our aim is to keep our readers posted on the changes in prices in these lines. Later, other quotations will be added and it is our desire to make this column of interest to both buyers and sellers.

—The body of Frank M. Graves, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Graves, formerly of this place, whose death at South Lawrence was mentioned last week, was brought here for burial Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Graves and their son William accompanied the body. Brief services were held at the cemetery, Rev. George W. Hunt officiating. The bearers were Dr. Ned C. Stiles, Don C. Stiles, Carl M. Howe and Charles W. McLaughlin.

—Austin I. Morrill has bought a new closed carriage and added another team to his hack line. The new vehicle is a fine one, and the addition is made to accommodate ladies who desire a carriage for calling or shopping. Mr. Morrill's stable is at 9 Central street and orders may be telephoned or left at Clark's stable, or Bingham's drug store and they will receive prompt attention. The calls are, Morrill's stable, 93-4; Clark's stable, 93-3.

—The Arlington, Mass., Advocate of October 12 contained an account of the celebration of the 25th anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Musgrave on October 11. The reception was large numbering about 300 guests, and was a very pleasant occasion. This will be of interest to our readers who remember Mrs. Musgrave who was formerly Miss Waugh and whose parents lived on Main street in this village.

—Petitions in bankruptcy have been filed by the following people in adjoining towns: Robert McCullough, a carpenter of Lyndon, with liabilities of $250.62 and assets of $150, all exempt; J. P. Miller, a farmer of Barnet, with liabilities of $586.50 and assets of $7073.54, of which $1,226 is claimed exempt; and Edwin Davison, also of Barnet, with liabilities of $614.27, assets $1,248, of which $500 is claimed exempt.

—Rehearsals are being regularly held for the cantata "Ester," which is to be given for the benefit of Brightlook Hospital, on the evenings of November 14 and 15. While this is an old cantata, so many varieties are introduced that it has received the highest praise wherever it has been presented. It is hoped that sufficient interest may be taken by the citizens of our town in its presentation here to make it a financial benefit to the hospital.

—A Bethlehem party consisting of Mrs. R. M. Hodgdon, Mrs. Russell Gardner, Mrs. J. K. Barrett, Mrs. E. P. Brown, Mrs. C. Henry Abbott, Mrs. Samuel Nurse, Mrs. John Dutton, Mrs. Lizzie Tracy, Mrs. John Mathers, Mrs. Charles Parcher, Miss Edith Gardner and Miss S. M. Abbott, drove to St. Johnsbury Friday in a six horse brake and enjoyed a fine special dinner at Rattle's cafe. The brake is one of the finest in the mountains and was driven by its owner, S. T. Connary.

—The Boston and Maine railroad's collection of views of New England is on exhibition in the art gallery of the Athenaeum for two weeks, from October 30. The collection consists of 190 views taken along the lines of the B. and M. system. There are several scenes around Willoughby and Lake Memphremagog and one of the Passumpsic valley looking south from Harris Hill. Aside from these there is no Vermont scenery. The purpose of the collection is doubtless to advertise the summer resorts reached by the railroad, but two of the most delightful ones, namely, Caspian Lake and Lake Morey, are not included.

—There was a small gathering at the Armory Friday night to witness the exhibition of fencing and wrestling arranged by the well known athlete and oarsman, Duncan C. Ross. In the wrestling matches Mr. Ross defeated I. B. Flint of this place in a catch as catch can contest which lasted about 23 minutes. In a collar and elbow bout Mr. Flint defeated Mr. Ross, but this result was partially accidental. One of the prettiest contests of the evening was the fencing contest between Mr. Ross and J. N. St. Germain of this place in which the honors were about even. Both the contestants are skilled fencers and the contest consisted of four three minute assaults.

—The dedication of the Fletcher Memorial Library, at Ludlow, of which Miss Mary E. Mastin of this place is librarian, occurred Friday afternoon. The dedicatory exercises included the presentation speech by Allen M. Fletcher, the response for the trustees and inhabitants, by Gov. William W. Stickney, and an address by President M. H. Buckingham of the University of Vermont. The library was given by Mr. Fletcher especially for the residents of Ludlow, Cavendish and Plymouth, but provision will be made to admit residents of neighboring towns to the free privileges of the library. The building will be open from one to nine p. m., daily except Sundays and legal holidays.

The Deer Hunting Season.

The open season for deer hunting closed Thursday and Fish and Game Commissioner Titcomb has as in former years endeavored to get a correct report from each town concerning the number of deer killed. The reports received up to yesterday afternoon shows that the hunters were more successful this season than in any of the three preceding years since the open season was established, notwithstanding the fact that in 1898 the season extended throughout the month of October.

The record by counties this year is as follows:

Adirondack,	10	Orange,	8
Bennington,	6	Orleans,	4
Caledonia,	7	Rutland,	54
Chittenden,	4	Washington,	17
Essex,	3	Windham,	4
Franklin,	3	Windsor,	64
Lamoille,	8	Total,	198

In 1898, the total was 131, in 1899, 89, and in 1900, 127. Caledonian county's total came from these towns, Danville, 1. Groton, 2. Peacham, 1. Sheffield, 2. Stannard, 1. The largest number reported from a single town was 23 from Plymouth in Windsor county.

At Fairbanks Village.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Morse of Lyndon, called on friends here Thursday.

Mrs. Fanny Green and daughter of Danville were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Bowditch, a part of last week.

T. C. Wing of Concord, N. H., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wing. Mrs. Sarah Morse of Cabot visited at H. B. Ford's last week.

Daniel Averill of Piermont was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wing over Sunday.

Oscar Wilson has given up his position at the scale shops foundry and will enter the employ of F. A. Pierce, St. Johnsbury Center.

C. H. Way has moved from Peacham to the George Wright place above the village.

TAMMANY DETHRONED.

Low Elected Mayor of New York, Croker Resigns Leadership.

By courtesy of the Burlington Free Press we are able to give our readers a summary of the more important results of yesterday's election.

In New York the citizens union ticket was successful. Seth Low was elected mayor by a majority of from 30,000 to 40,000. William T. Jerome was elected district attorney by a good majority. The overthrow of Tammany is complete and Richard Croker last evening resigned his leadership of the organization, abdicating in favor of John F. Carroll. The New York legislature is republican in both branches by increased majorities.

Massachusetts re-elects Gov. Murray W. Crane by 70,408, with one town to hear from. Boston gave the democratic candidate, Josiah Quincy, a majority of 7710. In Ohio returns up to 10 o'clock show republican gains in all the large cities except Columbus. Chairman Dix claims that Nash, republican, is elected governor by 60,000 majority. The legislature is republican and Senator Foraker's re-election is assured.

Democratic gains are reported in Kentucky. Nebraska is republican by 3,000 to 5,000. In New Jersey returns indicated that Murphy, republican, is elected governor by 8,000 majority. Pennsylvania is republican by a large majority. Returns from Maryland are meagre, in indications are that Baltimore is republican. Rhode Island is republican by 6000.

Church Notes.

At the Church of the Messiah next Sunday, Rev. E. V. Stevens of Lyndonville will preach in exchange with the pastor.

On Sunday evening at the North church there will be a special service in which the Sunday school will have a large part. The Young Men's Club are arranging a debate for the evening of November 14.

In the absence of the pastor next Sunday the North church pulpit will be occupied by Rev. C. H. Merrill, who will present some phases in the work of the Vermont Domestic Missionary society. Regular services at the Advent Christian church Sunday will be held at 10.30 a. m. Preaching by the pastor subject, "Progressive Christianity." Sunday school 12 to 1 o'clock; evening service at 6.30, prayer and praise.

The First Church of Christ, Scientist, Odd Fellows' block, Sunday morning services at 10.45. Subject, "Mortals and Immortals." Sunday school following the morning service. Wednesday evening meeting at 7.30. The reading room is open on Wednesday and Thursday from 2 to 5.

At Grace church the morning subject will be "The Light of the World," and in the evening Pastor Hunt will give the lecture, "Martha of Bethany," in his series on "Saints from among the common people."

Bible Day will be observed at the First Baptist church next Sunday. Subject of sermon for the morning will be "The Sacred Scriptures Tested and Triumphant." In the evening the Bible school will give a concert with an excellent program entitled "The Seed of the Kingdom." Two persons received the hand of fellowship at the communion service last Sunday.

The evangelistic meetings at the Free Baptist church on Sunday evenings are deepening in interest. The pastor is continuing his series of addresses, and will speak next Sunday evening upon "Jesus Dealing with a hopeless Case." W. B. Atwood leads the song service which commences at 7 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Dutton will preach at North Danville every evening this week except Wednesday evening when he will attend his own prayer meeting.
